Come and join with us in ritual and meditation this Imbolc

Imbolc is truly a liminal time of the year. It is the doorway we pass from the old winter to new spring. It is a birthing time in nature when the first of the flowers (snowdrops) and buds come into bloom. It is a time associated with the goddess of the land expressing herself in pure form. The goddess is seen as either a virgin, maiden or crone. These may be described as her three main personas that change with the moon or season.

So why not join us to connect with the time of year, to tune into the cosmic wisdom of the goddess in a light hearted way and to earth that process by channelling that into the Brigit's cross which, amongst other things, is a symbol for the cosmic cycle.

We are inclusive and non-denominational drawing on all philosophies and traditions.
